

For Immediate Release

July 17th, 2008

Contact: Mickaël Casol +1.514.947.6153 ceo@marysecasol.com

CASOL SILK SCARVES BRING ENLIGHTENMENT TO FASHION

Casol silk scarves bring enlightenment to fashion

July 17th, 2008

MONTREAL - French contemporary artist Maryse Casol launches today a timeless collection of square silk scarves that is to bring enlightenment to the world of fashion.

Inspired from Casol's numerous voyages and passion for knowledge, Le Carré Casol is a fine art print of Melodia Gitana, Été Indien, Violon Mélancolique and Fado Romantique, four of Maryse Casol's most famous paintings. Made in Lyon, France by a 120 year old company and hand rolled by the best couturieres in the "silk capital of the world", each Casol silk scarf celebrates the perfection in femininity. Exuding chic and elegance, this classic essential accessory will transform any woman into a beautiful and confident diva.

Soon to be in Montreal, New York, Miami, Paris, Monaco, and Dubai stores, the Casol silk scarf can now be found exclusively online at www.marysecasol.com

About Casol

The House of Casol is the story of a mother & son, combining their talents to bring the world the finest in art, fashion and exclusivity.

Maryse Casol (born December 7, 1957) is a French artist, poet, painter and fashion creator. Renowned for her vibrant colours, exotic landscapes and blazing still lives, Casol now lives in Montreal, Canada and in the south of France where she focuses on painting masterpieces.

Mickaël Casol (born May 22, 1979) ceo of CASOL, is an art dealer and competitive athlete. Famous for his strong ethics and unstoppable audacity, he travels the world to help collectors achieve their passion for art, fashion and exclusive lifestyle.

LUXURY IS COMMON. SEEK ENLIGHTENMENT.

